WD40

Veronica Bittendorfer

The 21-22 July saw the running of the inaugural Eukanuba Wingello Distance 40 (WD40). After what was an exciting and fun but somewhat tiring weekend our reporter on the scene was lucky to catch up with race organiser Mark Waldock for a scoop on the WD40.

Hike! : How did the WD 40 come about?
MW: After it was announced that the B60 wouldn't be held this year, like many mushers I was disappointed as the B60 has always been a great race. I thought to myself- the weekend is free, people have marked it off on the calendar and had trained for it, so why not put on a race to fill the gap. The WD40 was born.

Hike! Can you describe the atmosphere this weekend?
MW: Relaxed and casual. With only three weeks to organise the race it was always going to be low key. Also, with the small number of mushers the atmosphere is always more relaxed and intimate.

Hike!: You only had three weeks to organise the race? How did you manage it?
MW: My main concern was to get insurance coverage and I am pleased to say that we were the first ASSA affiliated event in Australia. We were very pleased to have Eukanuba sponsor the race with food for all competitors. I did a lot of the ground work organising prizes and sponsors however there were so many people willing to help, which was great. Every one pitched in on the weekend to set up the trail and start/finish chutes and mushers rest bays.

Myverygoodfriend Clem Bittendorfer did a great job as Race Marshal, as did Alex Theuma as trail boss, Phil Jones with the timing, my chief adviser Craig Turner and Karin and Gail in the 'kitchen'. As I said so many people lent a helping hand so thank you to everyone.

Hike!: Tell us about the race itself.
MW: The race consisted of two 20km legs. After the first 20km there was a six hour lay over. Each musher was assigned a resting bay where they staked out and cared for their team and got some sleep themselves. The teams left at varying intervals to run the 20km trail in reverse. The trail was moderate to easy with the odd hill thrown in, which is pretty unavoidable in Wingello.

Hike!: Did you compete yourself?
MW: Yes! I couldn't miss out on the opportunity!

Mark claims the race was low key however mushers and their friends were treated to tea and coffee all weekend, hot stew after the first heat and a hot BBQ breakfast complete with banana pancakes provided and expertly cooked by Wayne Baker. A few sore heads confirmed the red wine was flowing after the first heat as well! Di Baker said the best thing about the weekend was " the great stew for supper, the delicious breakfast and the friendly atmosphere".

Hike! Asked a few of the competitors what they thought of the trails. Jessica Baker, only young yet almost a race veteran said "I loved the trails, they were interesting with hills but also flat bits which got the dogs going at a good pace. Ivan Douglas commented " The trails were very good just enough hills as not to be an ordeal. I could see my team not being too stressed and they recovered very quickly. We could easily lengthen races if there were not too many hills."

The WD40 offered great prizes including a drop saw (working well is it Paul?) and camping gear, bags of Eukanuba and prize money. They ladies said that next year they would like to see a hair drier and vacuum cleaner on the prize table! The winner of the WD40 Kim Snibson said in her acceptance speech " what a fantastic race, I had a great time."

Hike! asked Mark Waldock if the WD40 will be on again next year, " If there is the same level of interest and a free weekend – why the hell not!"

Congratulations to all the competitors.

Internet Dog Genetics Course:

The Department of Animal Science at Cornell University has developed interactive distance-education courses on canine genetics that are intended for all dog enthusiasts. The courses are approximately eight weeks.

This course offers introductory material on basic concepts in genetics, along with the added component of applying the maths associated with genetics.

This course focuses on simply inherited characteristics and includes lectures and lab exercises on basic genetic principles and seminars on particular characteristics. Access to the instructors and teaching assistants will be via e-mail and web-based discussion board.

How To Bathe A Cat

Submitted by Di Baker

1. Thoroughly clean the toilet.
2. Add the required amount of shampoo to the toilet water, and have both lids lifted.
3. Obtain the cat and soothe him while you carry him towards the bathroom.
4. In one smooth movement, put the cat in the toilet and close both lids (you may need to stand on the lid so that he cannot escape). CAUTION: Do not get any part of your body too close to the edge, as his paws will be reaching out for anything they can find. The cat will self-agitate and make ample suds. Never mind the noises that come from your toilet, the cat is actually enjoying this.
5. Flush the toilet three or four times. This provides a "powerwash" and "rinse" which I have found to be quite effective.
6. Have someone open the door to the outside and ensure that there are no people between the toilet and the outside door.
7. Stand behind the toilet as far as you can, and quickly lift both lids.
8. The now-clean cat will rocket out of the toilet, and run outside where he will dry himself.

Sincerely,
The Dog

A Snowy August Forecast

August will be a big month for snow according to long-range weather forecaster John Moore.

Mr Moore, a former sheep grazier has made a name for himself in the field of long-range weather forecasting, even though he has no meteorological training. Mr Moore accurately forecast last year's bumper ski season and even some of the days that it would rain during the Olympics. And so far he has pretty much picked this years patchy season.

Mr Moore's long range weather forecast was published in the magazine Australia New Zealand Ski the World. So what does he have to say about August's snow season?

August

This month should open with a week of fine weather. Snowfalls will then commence around August 10 and continue through to August 21. Snowfall for the month will be - above average.

September

Periods of light snowfalls continuing throughout the month. Snowfall for the month – average.

October

Snowfalls between October 1st and October 7 with rains beginning around the middle of the month.

Lets hope Mr Moore has got it right!

K50 Cancelled

Landrover, one of A5K's race sponsors finally convinced Rob that a Landrover Defender would make the perfect dog truck however waiting for a 130 Crew Cab model Rob came across this monster truck that nearly filled void! Fortunately the deal from Landrover was to good to pass! Maybe at the next changeover.....

Far Side Awards

The September edition of Hike! will feature the final pointscore results for all sprint and distance mushers. It will showcase the top 3 place getters in each class.

But in keeping with tradition it will also focus the spotlight on those less professional aspects of the sport we all love.

So if you have a favourite blooper from 2001 send it into hike (by post, phone or email) and we'll include in the 2001 Far Side Awards!

Entries close in on 25 August.

Chinook Web Page a Winner

If you don't know about the versatile Chinook sled dog – or if you just want to see a really cool site. Check out http://www.chinooks.org/icframe.htm

The photos are stunning and the site is really easy to navigate. I especially like the judicious use of minimal text - they get the message across without heaps of reading.

And boy the Bartols do everything with their dogs – from scootering, sledding, skijoring, hiking and even kayaking!

Nancy Bartol tells me she is going to try kay-joring – you guessed it – getting the dogs to pull the kayak! If she gets a photo of the dogs in action I'll see if I can run it in a future edition.

What can I say – check it out!
